R.No,280, 2nd Floor, North Block, New Delhi

Dated : 15th September 2017

NOTIFICATION

Reference is invited to notification No 02/DS(Res.)/2017 dated 8th September 2017 relating to declaration of final list of candidates elected as Delegates to Kendriya Bhandar.

2. In para 2 (b) of the said Notification, a condition was prescribed that "the elected candidate should be presently working in an office which is part of the constituency to which he/she has been declared elected. Otherwise, he/she shall be disqualified automatically to hold the post of delegate." Written representations have so far been received from seven delegates informing that this condition is in contravention of Bye-law 14 (iii) which reads as under:-

"The Board of Directors shall group the members of the Society into convenient groups on the basis of Ministry/Department and its attached and subordinate offices/undertaking/places or the place where they are employed or where last employed for the purpose of elections of delegates."

3. The representations have been examined keeping in view the spirit of Bye-law 14 (iii) of Kendriya Bhandar and accordingly para 2 (b) of Notification dated 8.09.2017 stands amended as under:-

"the candidate should have been elected from a Constituency where he/she is presently employed or was last employed. Otherwise, he/she shall be disqualified automatically to hold the post of delegate."

4. The rest of terms and conditions of Notification dated 8.9.2017 shall remain unaltered.

5. This is for information of all concerned.
